CHAMBERLIN LOAN: OUR WAY TO HELP STUDENTS

Are you aware of the Branch loan funds for women students? These are different from the EFP grants and scholarships.

Chamberlin Loan Fund offers interest-free loans to full-time students who qualify after successfully completing one year of a degree program. Money for these loans comes from the income of the Sarah Chamberlin bequest which was left in trust to AAUW Buffalo Branch and from the repayment of loans.

Loans for education, Buffalo Branch, provides similar loans and/or grants to students who may or may not be full-time degree-seekers. Money for this comes from one-half of the Book Sale admission fees, gifts, and bequests. Members are urged to make memorial gifts to this fund.

Applications for both funds are available from the Chair, Marion Elmer. Information and gift cards for making donations may be secured from the Treasurer, Ruth Seitz. Committee members include Rita Dielman, Violet Gordon, Margaret Haas, Josephine Herman, Myra Menti, MaryAlice Seagrave, and Mary Weppner.

Fifteen loans were granted as a result of the interviews conducted after the June 15th deadline. The next deadline is December 15.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Phyllis Kelly

Our most sincere thanks to President and Mrs. Steven B. Sample for so generously hosting a reception commemorating the "First Hundred Years of AAUW's Educational Fellowships. We greatly appreciate their kindness and thoughtfulness.

PRIDE in both our Branch (100 years old in 1990) and the Foundation (100 years old this year) comes from knowing that we have played a vital role in broadening the options and increasing the opportunities for women. By promoting educated women's multiplicity of skills and talents, we have made this a better world.

As we enter our second century, facing continued change and challenge, we salute all our members. Working together, we have made a difference and will continue to make an even greater one in the years ahead.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Look for complete biographies on the following new members in next month's newsletter: Eileen Kama, Valarie Bozarth, Linda Rossitto, Margaret Wahlgren, Evelynne Stoklosa, and Linda DiRossitto.
