PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Branch Members,

We are truly honored and pleased to serve as your co-presidents and look forward to working closely with you in developing our Association's goals of gender and educational equity. Hopefully, you have enjoyed a wonderful summer and are now anxious to get back into an exciting schedule of AAUW monthly programs and study groups.

This year's used book sale was truly outstanding! Jackie Trace and her committee devoted many weeks of their time to ensure that the sale was a success. Because of their efforts, our branch will be able to make a significant contribution to the Buffalo Branch Centennial Endowment Fund in the Association's Educational Foundation. Thanks to all the branch members who came down to help or who contributed to the success of the sale. Teamwork goes a long way in making a job of this size more manageable.

Several members of our branch were busy this summer attending the New York State AAUW Leadership Training Session, the 1995 Summer Board Meeting, and committee meetings in Albany. Judy Weidemann and Betty Loucks have assumed positions on state committees: Weidemann on the Education & Equity Committee and Loucks on the Membership Committee. We are proud to have them represent us and know that they will make significant contributions to the State AAUW. Karen Noonan and Sharon Rich attended as members of the Boot Camp, which was designed to enhance leadership abilities. Barbara Carier, administrative director, coordinated the activities for the state. Congratulations, Barb, on another excellent job! Everyone enjoyed the camaraderie and networking.

The leadership conference stressed the importance of setting attainable goals both on the state and local level. We intend to address this issue at our board's goal setting meeting and will keep you informed of what we see as our priorities. Your input and perspective on our agenda is encouraged.

To launch the year, our Program Committee has planned an exciting September meeting. Our traditional potluck supper and study group display will continue. In addition, we are truly fortunate to be the very first organization to host representatives of the Western New York delegation to the United Nations Fourth World Conference on Women, to be held in Beijing, China. Dr. Geraldine Bard and Dr. Betty

Annual Potluck to Feature Delegates to the UN Conference on Women's Issues

The featured speaker at our September meeting will be Dr. Geraldine Bard. She is one of the official United States Non-Government Organization (NGO) delegates to the United Nations Fourth World Conference on Women's Issues being held in Beijing, China, from August 26 through September 8, 1995. Accompanying her will be Dr. Elizabeth (Betty) J. Cappella. Bard is Chair of the delegation from Buffalo and Erie County, and Cappella is vice-chair. They are representing the National Women's Conference Committee with Sarah Harder, national past president of AAUW, and are leading the United States delegation. Bard and Cappella were selected to present their paper, Women, Education, and Family Literacy: Strategies for Empowerment, to the conference.

Their workshop offers specific strategies to be incorporated into family literacy programs which focus on education toward equality; women's human rights; community development as it impacts on the political, social, and cultural aspects for job skill training; programs for at-risk children; family ecology; illiteracy; and the prevention of violence against women.

The potluck supper will also include information about study groups and a new feature, the "Luck of the Draw Auction." For only $3.00, you will have ten chances to win a gift. All proceeds will benefit our local Funds for Education and our program budget.

Invite your friends to a delicious dinner, acquaint yourself with a new study group, and enjoy a stimulating program.

Cappella will discuss their conference presentation.

In addition to the evening's program, we will hold a "Luck of the Draw Auction" to raise funds for our program budget and local Funds for Education effort. If you have anything to contribute to this worthwhile auction, please call Bunny Blackstone (655-4519). Please invite friends and prospective members to this enjoyable evening. Everyone is welcome.

USED BOOK SALETo Our Members,

Last month's net proceeds from the book sale of close to $12,000 mark perhaps a record of sorts, considering that we were able to cut our cost by more than half. The success of our sale testifies to the dedication of all the people who made it possible: our sponsors from the community (especially the Tri-Main Center), our ever-faithful customers, and, of course, all of you Buffalo Branch members who contributed your time, your knowledge, your books, and, in some cases, your dollars, to make it happen.

We're sure that those of you who chose not to support our project have your reasons, and we would be truly interested to know what they are. As you know, the Buffalo Branch Used Book Sale generates much interest and activity in Western New York. I have heard it said that many people in this community wouldn't have the foggiest idea of what AAUW stands for if it weren't for their exposure to the Book Sale.

You might stop and think about the mission and purpose of a group of people that calls itself "University Women." Ask yourself this question: What could be more appropriate to the promotion of higher education among women than an undertaking devoted to books? What other volunteer effort can you think of that can raise this amount of money for something that not only promotes the education of women but serves the intellectual interests of a community?

It is impossible to thank personally everyone who helped with this year's event, but all of us on the task force especially want to recognize our new members who turned out to make this event such a success: Natalie Bialy, Grace Hickok, Linda Krempe, Carol Lawrence, Heidi Mahoney, Moira Martineau, and Cassie Trace.

Thanks also to all "old" members, not only you who worked at the site, but also to all those people working behind the scenes typing labels, transporting books, publicizing the event, and supporting us in other ways. Bunny Blackstone, Mollie Fleysler, Myra Menti, Joan Richmond, Ruthe Sicherman, and Barb Smith are among those who contributed so much.

We are grateful to all of you who donated much needed equipment as well as your resources, especially to Ruth Auer for those marvelous, much-needed signs which added so much to the "festive atmosphere" during the sale, and to Judy Bratty for her easel and her nautical persona, as well as to Ruth Seitz's dependable white gloves, her folding screen, and her financial support

We also owe our success to the many friends and relatives who came to work with us. These are people who understand the importance of the sale and who show up year after year to help. Among the spouses who proved faithful, we thank Bruce Brown, Al Darbee, Joe Day, Chuck Jamieson, Herb Morrison, Shamus O'Connor, Steve Paskuly, and Doug McClive, who supplied us with category signs and helped out every single day of the sale.

Without Ann Bish and Ann Hicks as financial managers, however, we could never have sailed through as we did. Holed up behind a black curtain with little air and less light, beset by AAUW members strolling by for a sip of lemonade and the latest gossip, it's a wonder they ever got the books to balance.

Finally, thanks to all those who sponsored a table, supplementing our sales receipts by $260: Carol Brasure, J. P. Eriksen, Suzanne Grossman, Ruth Himmele, Barbara Kadzik, Lucille Peterson, Regina Reed, Nan Scinta, Mary Alice Seagrave, Jean Smith, Karen Stephenson, and Virginia Troy.

On behalf of Jill Brown, Rosemary Darbee, Carolyn Day, Anne Montes, Carol Paskuly, and myself, I thank you all.

CULTURAL NEWS

September is here and with it the beginning of a new cultural year. This year seems more tentative than those of recent years because of the many threats to cultural funding and, indeed, survival of many of these organizations. In spite of these clouds, there is, for now, much to enjoy.

If you have not yet seen the Paley exhibit at the Albright-Knox Art Gallery, you still have a month to go and view many extraordinary works of art. The Shaw and Stratford Festivals will continue until October. While both perform theatre of extremely high quality, if I had to pick a "must-see" at each, it would be Cavalcade at the Shaw and Long Day's Journey into Night at Stratford. Artpark will be presenting the musical Forever Plaid at Artpark-at-the-Church throughout the month of September.

The big September event is CURTAIN UP on the weekend of the 22nd to the 24th. For Shakespeare fans who don't wish to travel as far as Stratford, two local companies are collaborating on a production of King Lear. Shakespeare in the Park and The Irish Classical Theatre Company will present this classic at the Pfeiffer Theatre from September 14 through October 1. An American classic, Eugene O'Neill's Ah Wilderness!, will be the opening play at the Studio Arena Theatre, beginning September 12.

For opera lovers, the Greater Buffalo Opera Company will present Aida on Friday, September 22 and Sunday, September 24. If you would like a look at performers on the way up, check out the QRS Rising Stars series, which, on September 17, will present soprano Lauren Wagner at Slee Hall.

ASSOCIATION CONVENTION REPORTS: HIGHLIGHTS, MEMORIES, AND NEWS

In June 1995, it was my privilege to represent Buffalo Branch at the Association Convention in Orlando, Florida. Being on the grounds of Disney World in the Contemporary Hotel and Convention Center was very exciting, but no special setting can equal the thrill of participating in the discussions and discoveries of an Association which re-defines and further refines itself every two years.

We learned that in 1994-5 Association membership grew by 5 percent nationwide. Perhaps the 420 branches across the country – including Buffalo – who met goals to become 5-Star branches are part of the reason for this increase. Those branches were honored on the first night of the Convention.

The opening session was a wonderful mixture of fun and earnest contemplation of our mission. Giant TV monitors assisted the views of Mickey and Minnie Mouse dancing to welcome us, a choral group and color guard of Girl Scouts, and welcoming remarks from not only our own President Jackie DeFazio and her Canadian counterpart, Phyllis Scott, but also from First Lady Hillary Clinton, by video from the White House. Mrs. Clinton praised AAUW's history, goals, and successes, and urged us to continue the struggle to help girls, and all children, in light of the current Congressional realities.

After Orange County Chairman Linda Chapin stressed that the traditional "women's issues" have become the most pressing social issues of the day, it was our Jackie DeFazio who outlined a new effort for AAUW to work to reverse the results of the 1994 election. The Association Board has authorized all branches to begin immediately to refocus their efforts on a new Voter Education Campaign. The last Congress voted with AAUW's issues about 85% of the time; this Congress has a "score" of 0%! Voter education is mandatory to let people know that every issue promoting education and equity for women and girls is in danger! AAUW's top legislative priorities have become ideological battlegrounds. Recent gains for all women and girls in educational equity, civil rights, equal employment opportunities, and reproductive choice are threatened by the legislative agenda of the new congressional leadership. Even the Gender Equity Act, which was passed less than a year ago, isn't safe. The legislators constituting the new congressional majority aren't listening to anything we are saying because they have a different agenda.

The attacks are too broad and from too many fronts to defend. We must change the key players in 1996 or face further erosions of the hard-fought advances we've won. We need to harness our outrage into action. If women had voted in the same numbers in 1994 as they did in previous elections, the composition of the present Congress would be quite different.

With this challenge echoing in our minds, Buffalo Branch should consider the establishment of a Voter Education Campaign team/task force. Someone must identify potential partners in this campaign and take the lead in disseminating information and action ideas. It sounds like an AAUW project if I ever heard one!

Next month...more from the Convention.

JUNE BOARD MEETING

The Buffalo Branch Board of Directors met on June 3, 1995, at 7 p.m. at the Reinstein Branch, Cheektowaga Public Library. President Judy Weidemann called the meeting to order. The following reports were given:

President's Report – Weidemann reported on the Boot Camp for board members, a New York State AAUW Leadership Training Session to be held on July 15, 1995, at the College of St. Rose in Albany, New York. Weidemann also mentioned that Gail Eagan was honored at a Women's Action Committee luncheon.

Used Book Sale Report – Jackie Trace and Rosemary Darbee reported that the sale will be held at the Tri-Main Center, 2495 Main Street, Buffalo, New York. A bulk mailing has been sent to each Buffalo Branch AAUW member explaining what has been done so far and problems that exist. Bookmarks, which were donated, were included with the mailing. Sorting for the sale has started. A phone list of new members will be compiled, and they will be called; the committee is looking for tables at a good price; and the sign for the marquee will be set up in front of the building. The committee will meet every Thursday at 7 p.m. at the site until the sale is over.

Second Vice-President for Membership Recruitment Report – Marlene Dick has sent out 140 letters this year and has recruited 70 new members. Coffees will be held in January and August for new members. Articles will be placed in alumni publications from the University at Buffalo, Buffalo State College, and Daemen College. Fifty brochures have been sent to Welcome Wagons.

Third Vice-President for Membership Retention Report – A meeting is planned for June 11, 1995, to work on a membership list. The committee consists of Bunny Blackstone, Carolyn Day, Judy Weidemann, Lois Meyer, and Joan Allison.

Treasurer's Report – Lois Meyer reminded all officers to submit their expense vouchers. Meyer submitted her treasurer's report showing this year's total income as $7,266.58, and the checkbook balance at $4,252.45 after expenses. The savings account has been transferred to the Rochester Savings Bank. The treasurer's report was accepted and filed for audit. Meyer also circulated a letter with a notice regarding dues renewal, which she suggests be sent to members.

Loan Funds Treasurer's Report – Cindy Monacelli presented her report showing $31,884.80 in the Chamberlin Loan Fund and $6,909.61 in Funds for Education. The report was accepted and filed for audit.

Educational Foundation Report – Stacey Johnson presented her report showing a book sale checking account balance of $4,462.86. The report was accepted.

Chamberlin Loan Report – Maryalice Seagrave passed out the new applications for the Chamberlin Loan Fund. They have been slightly revised. The major change was the section applying to budget. Ann Hicks has had the applications printed. There were a few interviews conducted before the meeting, and the rest of the candidates will be interviewed on June 29, 1995. Seagrave brought to the attention of the incoming board the fact that the guidelines by the Ad-hoc Committee need to be reviewed.

Finance/Budget Report – Diane Silvestro reviewed the profit and loss at the end of the year.

Legal Advocacy Fund Report – Carolyn Day reported that the Association has taken a few more LAF cases. Day also reminded the board that the branch must send a list of our upcoming events to the Women's Action Committee for their calendar.

Study Groups Report – Judy Bratty stated that as a new member, she was very happy to be asked to coordinate the study group activities and is happy to be continuing next year.

College/University Relations Report – Karen Noonan stated that her work in recruiting college/university members has been difficult and not as successful as she would like it to be.

May Luncheon Report – Outgoing President Judy Weidemann congratulated Alice Mason, May Luncheon Chair, on a job well done. Mason has set up guidelines to help next year's chair. She will also publish thanks in the newsletter to all workers. Lois Meyer has a summary of expenses for future use.

Weidemann turned the meeting over to new President Bunny Blackstone.

Blackstone thanked Weidemann and the old board for their work and welcomed the new and continuing board members. Blackstone asked for more effective communications between members and the board. The following suggestions were made: a phone tree to connect the members, a new member's study group, programs that will appear to members on a broader range. Blackstone mentioned that the new board is not complete, and that Newsletter Editor Betty Loucks will be needing some help with the newsletter. The September board meeting will be held on September 6 at 7 p.m. at the Eggertsville-Snyder Library.
