President's Message

Now that the holiday hoopla is over and the winter doldrums are beginning to set in, this is a good time to focus on something new. February is the perfect month to do just that with its designation as Black History Month.

For many years we were led to believe that African American and other peoples of African descent had not made any contributions to human civilization. This, along with other distortions in Black history, led African American Scholar Dr. Carter Godwin Wilson to do something about conveying the truth in their history. In 1915 he founded the Association for Study of Negro Life and History and through this organization began the efforts for "Negro History Week", recognized officially in 1926, as a means to explore Black American contributions. He chose the 2nd week of February because two people who were instrumental in affecting the lives of African Americans were born that week – Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. In 1976, the now-renamed Association for the Study of African American Life and History succeeded in promoting this week into "Black History Month."

Our Buffalo Branch program on Sunday, February 15, 2004, is the ideal setting to focus on something new. "Revealing the Unrecognized Heroine", is in honor of Black History Month. It promises to be an enjoyable Sunday afternoon learning the valuable lessons from the Uncrowned Queens' lives and how the Uncrowned Queens Project continues to find these historical stories of African American women. Co-founders Peggy Brooks-Bertram, Dr. P.H., Ph.D. and Barbara A. Seals-Nevegold, Ph.D. began this project in 1999 in preparation for the Womens Pavillion Pan Am 2001. The group's name "Uncrowned Queens" was derived from a 1917 poem of the same name by Drusilla Dunjee Houston, (See this poem on page 5.) which conveys the essence of the project – acknowledging the contributions and accomplishments of hundreds of unsung heroines.

Deadline for the March issue is February 10
Please send articles to Joan Eschner via e-mail to jmeschner@att.net. Articles that are received later than the above date will not appear in the March issue.

After January's program of physical fitness and feeling better, continue feeling better in February by attending this program and learning about this great Uncrowned Queens Project. Details, locations and sign-up for the meeting are located elsewhere in this newsletter. The February Uncrowned Queens program is chaired by Tamara Brown.

Janet Fowler, President-elect.

“Revealing the Unrecognized Heroine”

Highlighting Uncrowned Queens in Honor of Black History Month

The Uncrowned Queens Project began as a project for Pan Am 2001 and includes a website to provide an historical overview and photos of the exhibits that purported to represent Africans and African-Americans at the 1901 Exposition, and of the activities of Buffalo's African American community in response to the Fair. The site details the nature of these activities as well as the individuals and specific groups who were participants in these momentous events.

In many respects, the Website speaks for itself. As a dynamic entity, the website changes continuously as updates and additional information are added frequently. You are encouraged to spend time “surfing” the Uncrowned Queens site at <http://wings.buffalo.edu/uncrownedqueens>.

This project has far exceeded all expectations. The website is receiving more than 20,000 hits a month and the total hits are increasing steadily each month.

In addition to the website, the Uncrowned Queens Project has stimulated community educational workshops in community based organizations, universities, colleges, schools and churches. There have been Uncrowned Queens sponsored conferences and a monthly e-mail newsletter provides readers with up-to-date information on the activities of our “community-builders” and innovative additions to our programs.

Future plans for the Uncrowned Queens Project include incorporation of the project as an organization that will perpetuate the work initiated under the original mission and vision. The Uncrowned Queens Institute for Research and Education on Women, Inc. is envisioned as an organization that will conduct research, compile and disseminate information and provide educational enrichment on issues concerning and affecting women of color.

Come to our Sunday, February 15 program at Reverend Dr. Bennett W. Smith, Sr., Family Life Center adjacent to the Saint John Baptist Church, 833 Michigan Avenue, Buffalo. Ample parking is available in the church's parking lot that is accessible from Michigan Avenue. Use the Locust St. exit from Rt. 33 and turn onto Michigan Avenue, if you come from the east. The program begins with coffee and dessert at 2:30 PM followed by a presentation of co-founders, Drs. Nevegold and Brooks-Bertram. They will tell us more about their organization and its current and future projects. Bring a friend (perhaps a young woman) and join us as we learn more about how these women continue to make known worldwide the heralds of unrecognized women of excellence.

“Be a Hero, Be a Teacher”

Claudia Kania, branch member, was honored at a reception on December 18, 2003, by Buffalo State College's Center for Excellence in Urban and Rural Education. The reception marked the start of the college's “Be a Hero, Be a Teacher” program. Twelve Teachers were honored. Claudia is a special education teacher at school 84 in Buffalo. She is indeed a hero.

HELP PLAN 2004-2005 PROGRAM

Our Program Development Committee would like your suggestions of some exciting, important, cutting edge topics/programs for our Branch. Please bear in mind their suitability for our organization and our mission. Are there any issues or activities we ought to consider? Would you be willing to help with some such programs? Please let us know your thoughts. We will be collecting suggestions through February. Please e-mail your suggestions to tgessner@buffalo.edu, or mail them to my home address which is in the membership roster; call me at 634-5053 if you wish to present your ideas at an upcoming meeting of the committee. Thank you for your help.

Teresa Gessner,

LEGAL ADVOCACY FUND

Thank you to everyone who responded to the last minute request for additional gifts to the Legal Advocacy Fund (LAF). I am proud to say that we had three major donors from the Buffalo Branch: Linda Brodsky, Linda Suchocki, and Jan Vine. These members will attend the first annual LAF Benefit which be held at Daffodils on Saturday, April 3rd from 10:30am - 12:30pm and receive their LAF Donor pins from Susan Sontup, NYS LAF Vice President. Susan will discuss the history of LAF and the inroads the Fund has made in terms of achieving equity for women and girls on college campuses across the nation. Sheila Graziano, a local attorney who specializes in gender discrimination and is a member of the LAF Network, will also discuss her experience with the Network as well as general issues pertinent to gender discrimination.

Though the official figures are not in yet, I believe the Buffalo Branch will be credited with a contribution of $1438 for calendar year 2003. The contributions came from the following sources:

$577 member contributions from addition to dues

$400 major donors

$225 Buffalo Branch contribution approved by BOD

$100 contributions sent directly to
NYS LAF

$136 theme basket raffles

In 2004, I am confident contributions from nonmembers will be added as source of funds through the work of the LAF Committee on local campuses and within the community. The Buffalo Branch also has the opportunity to auction up to three (3) theme baskets at the NYS Convention in Albany this April. The Book Sale Committee has generously offered to donate a basket of our new books. If there are any members who have items they would like to donate, please contact me via e-mail at jayneharn@adelphia.net or by phone at 565-2076. The LAF Committee needs items for approximately 10 theme baskets; 3 for the Convention and the remainder will be raffled off at the LAF Benefit in April and throughout the coming year at general membership programs.

The next meeting of the LAF Committee will be on Tuesday, January 20th at 6:00pm at the Higher Grounds Coffee House at Millersport & Sheridan. We will be discussing publicity for the April event, partnership with the Women Lawyers of Western New York and the Women's Bar Association of NYS, and fundraising ideas for the calendar year. All are welcome to attend.

AMERICA'S UNCROWNED QUEENS:

*Dedicated to the Heroic,
Toiling Black Woman*

by Drusilla Dunjee Houston

October 26, 1917 - Black Dispatch
Courtesy of the Oklahoma Historical Society

'Neath a weary load upon dusky head,
Upon American streets is the tread
Of an uncrowned type of heroine,
Their labors untrumpeted and unseen.
It to her helpmate, life chance is denied
With undaunted courage, she stems the tide,
Meets some of homes needs, help make it fair;
That he may find a kingship there.

When manhood is shackled, into its place
Nature oft forces a courageous race
Of women, who with heroic spirit,
Stamp within unborn children the merit
Denied their fathers. For what man's disdain
Keeps from one generation, the next will gain.

We see them in rain, in cold and the heat,
As they pass us with patient, toil worn feet.
Behind some great universities wall
It is the boy or girl for whom she gives all
Sometimes the more sacrificial her fire
The less we praise it, the more we require.

Whipped with the lash, until the reddened stain,
Of her life blood ran from opening vein,
In slavery's hour, this type was true
To virtue. Today life's way they pursue
As heroically. No scorn or slight
Can change her ideals, she sees aright;
That duty done, in higher worlds will mean
That she will be more than an uncrowned queen.

Book Sale Committee Meeting

There will be a meeting of all who wish to be part of the Book Sale Committee on Monday, February 23, 2004 at 3:00 PM at The Stonegate of Clarence Club House. Stonegate is .6 miles east of Transit Road just off Wherle. It is just past the Wherle Golf Dome and opposite the Harris Hill Nursing Facility. The address is 4100 Stonegate. It is the first building on the left as you pull into Stonegate. The parking lot is to the left of the building. Try to park double so that there will be enough room. The phone number of the Clubhouse is 565-1400. The arrangements for this meeting were made by Maryalice Seagrave.

This is our 50th anniversary year and an exciting one! We welcome members of the branch to the committee.

Call any member of the Steering Committee for more information.

The Book Sale Committee:

Marguerite Collesano	853-6480
Mary Kellner	741-8127
Jan Vine	636-6182
Judy Weidemann	655-3649
Cathy Weiss	688-6181

December Board Minutes

1. The branch contributed approximately $975 to the Legal Advocacy Fund. $225 of that was a branch contribution - the remainder was contributed by individuals.
2. $10,000 was sent to the NYS EF Chair as our branch contribution. 50% was designated to General Support and 50% to the Research and Projects fund. Twenty people or organizations will be named as honorees.
3. There were ninety requests for applications for the Chamberlin Loan and Funds for Education awards. These were followed by nine final applications. In the future, we will attempt to put the application form on our website to save the postage and paper costs of sending them out.

Public Policy

The Buffalo Branch Public Policy Committee will meet on Monday, February 9, 2004, (note the change from the usual 1st Monday) at Perkins Restaurant, 84444 Transit Road, East Amherst, NY. Supper will be at 5:30 PM and the meeting will begin at 6:30 PM.

The committee will continue to plan for the Dinner Meeting on March 8, 2004, to recognize International Women's Day and the Title IX Conference in October. The Title IX Conference will be under the leadership of Linda Suchocki. Both events are exciting and meaningful.

We invite other branch members to join our committee. Call Linda Suchocki at 823-4154, Cathy Weiss at 688-6181, or Judy Weidemann at 655-3649 for more information.

Public Policy Dinner

The Public Policy Committee sponsored its second annual Holiday Dinner to benefit a local Social Service Agency on December 16, 2003. This year's speaker was Stephanie Eghigian from Haven House. She told us of the needs of the clients at Haven House and of Haven House's plans for expansion. $265 was collected from those attending. In addition to giving cash it was suggested that there were items that could be donated. Among them are items for the daily needs of the women (shampoos, toothpaste, face cream and other cosmetics), journals, small pocket calendars. Toys or activities with learning components would be appreciated. Dolls of color would be enjoyed by some of the children. Items for teens such as Walkmen and teen games are especially needed. If you have items to donate, contact Cathy Weiss (688-6181) or Judy Weidemann (655-3649).
